Whereas these authorities do not have the authority to adopt interim measures in accordance with Article 14.17.7(a) (Domestic Review Procedures), the power to adopt such measures delegated to the Office of the Attorney General are considered sufficient to meet the requirements, supplementary, of that paragraph. The Office of the Attorney General has the power to suspend the tendering and awarding of contracts in the course of any disciplinary proceedings brought against government officials responsible for government procurement

5. Without prejudice to the provisions of the preceding paragraph, Colombia will work to implement the provisions of Article 14.17.4 (Domestic Review Procedures), within a maximum period of eight years from the entry into force of this agreement. Within this period and in accordance with the provisions of Article 22.6.3(b) (Administration of the Agreement), Colombia shall report to the Committee on the adoption of such measures.

Section H: Threshold Values

1. The thresholds shall be adjusted in every even-numbered year with each adjustment taking effect on January 1, beginning on January 1 of the first even-numbered year after the date of entry into force of the Agreement.

2. Every two years, Colombia shall calculate and publish the value of the thresholds under Chapter 14 (Government Procurement) expressed in Special Drawing Rights (SDR). These calculations shall be based on the average of the daily conversion rates of the Colombian currency in terms of SDR, published by the International Monetary Fund in its monthly International Financial Statistics over the two-year period preceding October 1 or November 1 of the year before the adjusted thresholds are to take effect.

3. Colombia shall notify the other Party of the current thresholds in its national currency immediately after the Agreement enters into force, and the adjusted thresholds in Colombian currency thereafter not later than one month before the thresholds take effect. Thresholds expressed in the respective national currency shall be fixed for a period of two years, i.e. calendar years.

4. Colombia shall consult if a major change in Colombia currency relative to the SDR or to the national currency of the other Party were to create a significant problem with regard to the application of Chapter 14 (Government Procurement).
